To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Eva Poetters.

Eva worked for me at Orange Business Services for almost 1 year as a Project Manager on the Siemens SNX Migration project until the project was closed. During Eva's service with us I spent considerable time with her.

Eva was devoted to her work and demonstrated to understand the business and the stakes. She's shown to be a real team player with great communication skills and enjoyable to be around. She's been able to use those skills to do everything she could to reach our goal and turn the difficult project into a success story.

She's also shown to be well organized and driven by both quality and efficiency.

In closing, let me say I have no hesitation in recommending Eva Poetters for any position pertaining to Project Management, in particular in the information technology industry.

I feel confident she would be an asset to your organisation.

Sincerely,

Marc Jonckheere
